WORLD'S #1
NUDE ART
MAGAZINE

When we use the term VOLO, we define freedom of action, freedom from false pretenses and the independence to express yourself in the most animalistic yet beautiful way possible. Don't be a slave to peer approval or the norms of society, but don't break laws either... This is the principle behind the brand we have built into the worlds premiere nude-art publication and our cover for this issue is a woman who exemplifies all-things-VOLO.

I am proud to present an ethereal beauty, a mother, a wife and one of Hungary's most prolific models; Barbara Bocsi on the cover of VOLO 22. Featured in a set by Peter Marosi, her husband and the father of her two kids, Barbara shows us that becoming a wife and a mother does not define the loss of incredible sexual energy and presence for a woman. Nor does it mean the loss of physical beauty and shape.

Following in her footsteps is American goddess Becca Goebel. Featured in the first ever maternity nude art shoot in VOLO, Becca shows off the incredible glow emanating from her in her 8th month of pregnancy... A glow that accentuates her sexual energy and power and makes body as desirable, if not more from her pre-pregnancy days.

Our featured photographer for this issue is none other than the great Dan Hecho from Ukraine, one of the great curators of incredible imagery with a distinct stamp. Dan has been one of the leading figures in Ukranian photography for a long time but this is the first time his work is getting exposed to a worldwide audience.

And that is just the tip of the iceberg folks, we have made this issue of VOLO another one of those collectors editions that you should also make sure to get a print copy of. You can order those from our website www.volomagazine.com

Enjoy the issue and please write back to me with your suggestions and critique... That is the only way we will stay at the top and keep on getting better!

George Ganio

Hello, my name is George Ganio and I am 36 years old photographer originally from Eugene, Oregon in the United States of America. I have been living in Melbourne, Australia for the last four years.

I've been interested in photography since my late twenties, but never really had the time or drive to pursue it. My venture into professional photography has been quite interesting and fast-paced since I decided to truly dive into it. Nearly a decade as an analytical, environmental and neuropathology scientist, my wife said I needed a hobby and after a blunt, but honest review of my first portrait results here I am a year and a half later producing the results you see now in VOLO Magazine.

I'm currently a freelance photographer and have been published 12 times in the last 6 months in various local (Australian) and international magazines, while still working as a scientist. I have worked with numerous agency models from around the world and am currently contracted through Brazen Models in Melbourne, Australia as one of their in-house photographers.

I tend to mainly shoot portraiture, fashion and high-end glamour, but am continuously experimenting with different genres and techniques. As an artist I don't believe the mantra that you have to stick to one type of photography as you're already limiting your creative side by doing so.

I don't plan to go full-time freelance, but if it happens then it happens. I'm in no hurry to get famous or make a living off of my passion, although I wouldn't complain if it happened tomorrow, haha!

Thank you VOLO for supporting my dreams and me and I'm honored to grace your pages.

*Cheers.

THE DANCER

NICOLE ELLIS

Hello my name is Nicole. I am 24, born and raised in Melbourne, Australia and have been dancing since the age of six. I have been modeling for several years and have done a wide range of genres.

While attending high school I juggled full time dance at the Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School (VCASS) where I was nominated dance captain. I continued full time training at the Australian Conservatoire of Ballet before getting into the English National Ballet School, only to give up dance to Study Podiatry.

Whilst studying I started cheerleading for the National Basketball League's (NBL) Melbourne Tigers in 2011, and am still a cheerleader for the NBL to date (now Melbourne United). During this time I graduated from La Trobe University with a Masters in Podiatry in 2013.

In 2014, I was also was a cheerleader for the National Rugby League's Melbourne Storm before signing a 12-month contract for the Las Vegas show Sydney After Dark in 2014. I have since returned to Melbourne and am continuing my cheerleading career with an open mind for the future.

Thank you VOLO for my first publication, it's quite exciting!

Love to all VOLO Fans,
Nicole

CHIC BEARD STYLES

for WINTER 14/15

by Jason Mueller

Winter isn't coming, winter is here. We can tell by the frigid temperatures and the regular snow showers. For men, this time of year is the ideal excuse to grow a beard: it keeps you warm and there are often well-timed fund-raisers occurring starting in November that ask participants not to shave for a significant period of time. If wearing a beard is in your future this winter, check out some of these chic beard styles that'll keep the winter's cold at bay.

THE SHADOW - SEXY STUBBLE

This style is great for the metrosexual man who can't be bothered with long, unruly beards. It isn't as warm as a full beard or some of the other options, but it is by far the most "professional" looking facial hair a man can grow. To pull off sexy stubble, you must maintain a close trim daily, as well as a clean, symmetrical beard outline. Shave right to your jaw line and remember: with sexy stubble, less is more.

THE SHORT - BOXED BEARD

Offering the ability to wear your hair a bit longer, the short boxed beard leaves high cheek bones clean shaven, boxing the greater beard area in a shapely way using the rest of the beard. This style is also better on the shorter side, as it is defined by its unique outline shape.

TIGHT V-MAN BEARD

Similar to the sexy stubble, a tight beard is a precursor to the full beard. Whereas sexy stubble gets buzzed short daily, a tight beard will require a week or more to grow for most men. Either trim exactly to the jawline, or leave roughly half an inch of hair growing beneath your chin for a longer beard tip.

HOW TO GET THE LOOK?

To properly maintain short beards, some grooming tools are better than others and here are my recommendations.

THE MANGROOMER SCRUFF SCULPTOR PRO is an ideal choice for clippers, because they have the closest stubble setting available on the market.

PHOTOGRAPHER

JIM HESTERMAN

My art career began early with crayons and paper and my mother's support. She taught me about light and shadow, and how to perceive the direction of light based on how shadows fall across objects. By adolescence, the robots and monsters I created on paper slowly morphed into individuals that I admired and found beautiful.

I'm a big fan of the punk rock scene, finding its gritty edginess, style and sound, artistically appealing. In the early 2000s, I began shooting punk bands, and while my shots didn't give any indication of a future photographer, I fell in love with the medium.

I think I hit my mark as an artist when I moved from drawing to the simple rendering of a likeness--to photography which required a more cerebral approach in capturing personality, attitude, and emotion. The art form became more contextual and immediate.

My portrait compositions are usually sparse. I am more interested in capturing a nuanced slice of life than telling a complex story. I think the dominance of line, accentuated by dramatic contrasts of light and shadow, expressively reveals the uniqueness of individual form and personality. In the process, the glimmer of attitude and emotion are also captured.

SANCTUM

Hello VOLO readers,
My name is Anna (also called Sanctum.), I'm 25 years old and I was born in Russia. I started modeling in 2005. Over the years and step by step I have developed myself to be who I am today and now I am in harmony with myself and with my body. I value my body and feel great in my skin. Is why my body will stay forever without any tattoos and piercings.

I love to be with family and friends. A good relationship with my parents and my partner is very important for me. I would never think that there is something more important than to be in the arms of my loved ones.

Sweet greetings,
Anna

Dan Hecho is currently one of Ukraine's top photographers.

Born and raised in Ukraine, Dan received went to school for art and since childhood was interested in all forms of photography. He is currently the head of Ukraine's 'Association of Wedding Photographers (uwpa.com.ua) and actively teaches photography since 2010.

Dan turned professional in 2007 and in the last 7 years he has developed an incredibly unique stamp which lets people identify his work without any mention of his name on the picture. We call this stamp 'Shades of Blue', a very distinctive vision of color, light and posing which clearly distinguishes his mastery.

Dan has developed a very clear and structure method of presenting information in his classes, aimed at maximum absorption of knowledge and development of the creative vision of each student of his. His master classes and lectures in photography schools around the country are attended by 1000's every year. Keeping up with the trends, Dan has also started teaching videography in a new class.

Dan's main focus is wedding, fashion, portraiture and nude art. He has won awards in all his specialties including:

Winner of ASFO 2009 | Winner Russian National Photographer 2011 | The Art of the Nude 2013/2014 in the Academic Nudes and Duet categories.

Barbara Bocsi

Hi VOLO readers, my name is Barbara Bocsi. I am a 29 year old model from Budapest, Hungary.

I make my body a priority in my life, but I am sad to dissappoint you all that I am already married and I have a little son and a beautiful girl... But you can always look ;)

I am a lawyer by education, but I have had an avid career in acting and modeling. When I was 7 years I started to act in theatre. My first modeling assignment came when I was 13 and since then I have modeled for a lot of major brands like Coca Cola and Vodafone. I have travelled all around the world in the last 10 years as part of my modeling adventures.

One of my longest adventures was to be part of the Las Vegas show 'Sydney After Dark' in 2014. I just finished that stint and I am currently in Melbourne.

Surprisingly though I have never really modeled Nude and VOLO is my first nude publication... And it's quite exciting!

Hello VOLO, my name is Peter Marosi. I live in the center of Europe in Budapest, Hungary. The woman you see in the picture on the facing page is my wife and mother of my kids Barbara. Don't be jealous, I know I got lucky :).

I have a beautiful family with 3 kids and a lovely wife and my mother. The first pictures I took was at age 10 was of a little bug in our garden with a film camera, and my mother guiding me. She was a professional photographer who always supported my passion. 10 years later I became a professional photographer. Hopefull I measure up to VOLO standards :)

Photography for me is so much more than just taking pictures. I like to catch the moments, the passion, the emotions, and the beautiful parts of the female body .Since 2005, I have been doing artistic nude and glamour, boudoir photography as freelance in my country, concentrating on black and white light and shadow, rough and smooth, traditional and unexpected.

THE MODEL

ZOE

Zoe is fairly new model based out of Austria in Europe. She has been modeling since 2011 and the hallmark of her style is the great sexuality and realism (connection with the camera) that she is able to portray.

Modeling in the nude is new to Zoe and she has worked with Guenther a few times in the past to gather courage to do this set for VOLO. This is her first appearance in any magazine and also her first published nude art set. She says "I am super excited that the worlds #1 nude magazine has accepted my work. I cannot believe that my first published set will be in a magazine with the reputation like VOLO. I love being nude and workout a lot to maintain my shape. Other than working out, I love dancing, partying and hanging out with my friends. I currently work as a secretary in an office. I don't really have any strcuture plans for modeling, I just enjoy it as a pastime.

Give a very warm welcome to this gorgeous beauty, folks!

PHOTOGRAPHER

Guenther Achleitner

Freelance photographer Guenther Achleitner is a enthusiastic self-tought artist.

Guenther used to shoot pictures in the 1990's but took a decade long break from photography to pursue politics. Guenther has been Vice-Mayor of his home city Puchenu - Austria. He walked out of politics in 2012 to develop his career as a professional photographer. Since then he is living his dream through his pictures. The brand-name of his enterprise EIKONAS is (ancient) greek and means (high quality) pictures.

His portrayal of nudes is full of respect and appreciation for his models. Beauty cannot be discovered by simply exhibiting objects without clothes but by connecting with the subject, with the partner on the other side of his lens. Therefore Guenther's models are always shown as proud and beautiful individuals.

Guenther's understanding of beauty is based upon his appreciation for genuineness and simplicity, of immediacy and truthfulness of the simple being as an aesthetic and self-confident individual. The beauty and eroticism of his models emerges in the magic of sensual, often excited and soul-revealing moments.

His photographic style can be defined as sensual, soft and natural. He loves to play with the available light, with a narrow focus and with lights and shadows as well. Most important to him is staying free in his creative process, he is always learning and trying to develop his skills in order to create captivating moments of the essence of female beauty, we all are longing for.

PHOTOGRAPHER

Martin Wieland

Martin is working as professional photographer since 1995. he started to specialize in nude and erotic photography in 2000. it's very important for him that his models feel comfortable and he wants to give the viewer of his pictures the feeling that the model had on the set.

In Martins opinion nude photography doesn't have to be too serious all the time, that's the reason why there are always some photos of nude girls which are laughing in his camera. people should be able to see that it was great fun during the shoot and pictures don't have to be perfect all the time - perfect can be boring.

In his pictures the model is the star, and he is always trying to get the maximum out of the model - and most of the time he seems to make it work. For him it's important to see the model as partner and not as an employee, to create art from combined ideas and thoughts.

Martin has already been working for Playboy South Africa, Penthouse Germany, Men's Health Germany, Wiener and many more magazines and publishing houses and since the last twelve years he is the publisher of his "Black & White" calendar - which is a strictly limited edition - numbered and handsigned by the artist. The calendar is sold out every year, so it already becoming a collector's item.

THE MODEL

DOMINIKA KISSOVA

Nika as she is known in the modeling world is a 25 years old Slovakian model.

She started to work as a model in Slovakia, but stopped after some time because she did not get any serious offers. A few years after that Nika moved to Vienna (Austria) for a second chance at modeling. She says "I was looking on the internet to find photographers and the first photographer I found and liked was Martin Wieland. I wrote him a message and asked him if he wants to work with me? I asked him to be honest - the pictures I sent him were really awful, but luckily he said yes and we had our first shoot a few weeks later in a hotel in Vienna.

This was the start of my real modeling career. At the moment i am working for many photographers around Europe, but always love to come back to Martin to shoot with him anytime he wants!!"

THE MODEL

BECCA GOEBEL

Becca Goebel, defines the term VOLO. This is her third appearance in the magazine since her first feature in VOLO #12. Her first set for VOLO went viral with over 1.5 Million views of her images in one week of the magazine launching. Her first set stays one of the most 'pirated' image sets from VOLO on the internet.

Becca just gave birth to a beautiful baby boy, but just before that she approached our founder Shankha to shoot her in a special VOLO style maternity set.

Not every nude art set of a gorgeous pregnant woman needs to be just about the shape of her pregnant belly. When a woman is pregnant, she is glowing. It is the one time, when the power of two souls is emanating from a single body and it's an incredible time in her life.

With this set, we tried to capture the glow emanating from Becca during her eighth month of pregnancy while preserving the incredible sexual energy that emanates from this goddess.

CHIC BEARD STYLES

for WINTER 14/15

by Jason Mueller

Winter isn't coming, winter is here. We can tell by the frigid temperatures and the regular snow showers. For men, this time of year is the ideal excuse to grow a beard: it keeps you warm and there are often well-timed flash-friers occurring starting in November that ask participants not to shave for a significant period of time. If wearing a beard is in your future this winter, check out some of these chic beard styles that'll keep the winter's cold at bay.

This style is great for the metrosexual man who can't be bothered with long, unruly beards. It isn't as warm as a full beard or some of the other options, but it is by far the most "professional" looking facial hair a man can grow. To pull off sexy stubble, you must maintain a close trim daily, as well as a clean, symmetrical beard outline. Shave right to your jaw line and remember: with sexy stubble, less is more.

THE SHORT - BOXED BEARD

Offering the ability to wear your hair a bit longer, the short boxed beard leaves high cheek bones clean shaven, boxing the greater beard area in a shapely way using the rest of the beard. This style is also better on the shorter side, as it is defined by its unique outline shape.

TIGHT V-MAN BEARD

Similar to the sexy stubble, a tight beard is a precursor to the full beard. Whereas sexy stubble gets buzzed short daily, a tight beard will require a week or more to grow for most men. Either trim exactly to the jawline, or leave roughly half an inch of hair growing beneath your chin for a longer beard tip.

HOW TO GET THE LOOK?

To properly maintain short beards, some grooming tools are better than others and here are my recommendations.

THE MANGROOMER SCRUFF SCULPTOR PRO is an ideal choice for clippers, because they have the closest stubble setting available on the market.
